

Company Name:	Ailytics Limited
Posting Date:	20 May 2024
Category:	ITC STEM Internship Scheme
Company Overview:	Ailytics is a computer vision and AI tech startup incubated by Hong Kong Science & Technology Park (HKSTP). We provide AI video analytics solution that helps construction companies create a safe and productive workspace to minimize risk and improve productivity across all of their facility footprints. The global industrial workplaces are dangerous and inefficient, with fatalities happening every 10 minutes and 35% of the time being spent on non-productive activities. At Ailytics, we believe that workplace safety and productivity are non-negotiable and can be easily improved with the adoption of the right technology. Using the latest breakthroughs in AI, we empower the workplace to have 24/7 monitoring of their operations, receive real-time violation notification, and optimize their operational bottlenecks, resulting in up to 25% reduction of the human and economic cost of workspaces. We are proud to be part of HKSTP's incubatee this year and we expanding our business to Hong Kong SAR and the entire Greater Bay Area in the next 3-years. We are looking for a passionate individual with the creativity and entrepreneurial spirit to join our fast-paced and dynamic start-up.
